

SPIDERS DEFEAT YELLOW JACKETS; SCORE, 20 TO 18

Arrow was intercepted by Driver. Bane went around end for twenty yards, and Driver lost half the distance. Bane at length was forced to kick. Two forward passes failed, and the ball went over to Randolph-Macon, and Driver and Sheffield carried it to Richmond College's twenty-two-yard line, where time for the half was called.

In the second half Richmond College received the kick-off. The ball went outside, and was brought back and put in play in the center of the field. Klevessahl gained ten yards round the end, then added six more, and King netted seven. On a pretty triple pass Newton made twenty yards around end, and placed the oval on the opponents' twenty-yard line. But the ball was lost on a fumble.

Lost Ball on Fumble.—Randolph-Macon lost the ball also on a fumble, and Driver recovered it on the enemy's thirty-five-yard line. On a triple pass Newton went to the eleven-yard line, and King in two plays went seven more, and at length Klevessahl won to within six inches of the line.

Randolph-Macon held like a brick wall, and the ball went over on the eighteen-yard line, and the latter returned it four yards. Ground was lost on a forward pass, but on a forward pass Klevessahl again won back to within half a foot of the line. In the next play King dove through for a touchdown, Richmond College's first score. Ancarrow kicked goal. Score, Randolph-Macon, 12; Richmond College, 7.

Richmond College kicked to Randolph-Macon, and Sheffield returned the ball five yards, and Bane brought it to mid-field. Vaughan kicked to King, who ran it back twenty-five yards, to the forty-yard line, and Newton gained three on a triple pass. King and Klevessahl worked the ball on end runs to the visitors' twenty-yard line, and the ball was on the third-yard line on the third down, when time for the third quarter was called.

The Fourth Quarter.—In the fourth quarter the ball was placed in a corresponding position in the western part of the field, Richmond College having only three yards to go. The visitors held, and the Spiders failed on downs, the ball going over. Vaughan kicked out to King on the forty-yard line. Pollard gained six yards, and Jones added two. Wickor was sent in for Pollard. On a forward pass, Ancarrow to Klevessahl, the spiders went to Randolph-Macon's fifteen-yard line. Klevessahl and Robins carried the oval to the six-yard line, and King went to within two. Robins went half the remaining distance, and on the first down King went over for the second touchdown. Ancarrow carried the oval to the six-yard line, and King went to within two. Robins went half the remaining distance, and on the first down King went over for the second touchdown. Ancarrow carried the oval to the six-yard line, and King went to within two. Robins went half the remaining distance, and on the first down King went over for the second touchdown.

Penalties—Richmond College penalized twice in first quarter for holding, fifteen yards each; twice in second quarter for off-side play. Score, Richmond College, 20; Randolph-Macon, 18. HAMPDEN-SIDNEY ON JUMP AT START

She got close enough for a try at a drop by Berthy, but it went wild. Hampden-Sidney failed to score in this quarter, but got near enough for the goal line to be crossed by Saunders in the fourth. Bug ran the ball back sixty-five yards, and then carried it on two successive plays for the fifth touchdown, but fumbled the ball. It was recovered, however, by Shackelford. The bright particular star of the game was Kirk Saunders, the little captain, who made about half the tackles for his team and never failed to gain from five to thirty yards. Holding started in the line and Ebel at end, while Carrington thrilled the crowd with his broken field punting. Berthy, for William and Mary, played a great game, with Captain Wright also starting. W. & M. Position.—H. S. Gayle, left end; Gregory, left tackle; Wright, left guard; Guthrie, center; Taylor, right guard; Moore, right tackle; Ebel, right end; Wallace, right tackle; Benedict, right guard; Shackelford, right half; Carrington, left half; Anderson, left half; Pendleton, left half; Taylor, left half; Jones, left half; Substitutes—Hampton-Sidney: Walker for Moore; Oliver for Pendleton; Bug for Oliver; Thurman for Carrington; Ebel for Walker; Paul for Gregory; Orr for Ebel; Warry for Shackelford.

BLUES OUTPLAY RIVALS DURING MOST OF GAME

here and there a voice from the Princeton side breaking the silence with a murmured "block that kick!" The ball came hopping upward and backward out of the mass of men with startling accuracy. Guernsey stood with his back to a crowd, but he was upright the instant the ball touched his fingers. Then he let it fall, seemingly as lightly as a feather to the ground, and as it rebounded once his toe hit a resounding smack. High and far that smash carried, and the ball passed squarely over the Tiger goal-posts, though yards above them. The Blue banners rolled over the Yale side like a mighty wash of deep-sea water, and a boom of voices swept the field as the followers of Old Eli jubilated.

No Less Spectacular.—No less spectacular, however, was the boot of Holey Baker in the third period, which put the score even. Baker had not done much during the game; in fact, he had been quite a disappointment to his most ardent admirers. He held a hopeless chance at carrying the ball through a broken field, he had been stopped time and time again before he could even get started. Then at a moment when it was least expected, and when he seemed to be taking a hopeless chance, Baker dropped the ball to his toe at Yale's forty-yard line, and cracked it across the Blue posts. The spectators gasped in amazement as the little blonde leader of the Junglers cut loose his leg-driven drive, and a second later even the Yale rooters had to join in the outburst from sheer admiration.

Twice again during the game Guernsey took shots at the Tiger goal, but failed in each instance. Once he booted from close up, only to have the kick blocked, and again he booted from a range of thirty-five yards. This time he narrowly missed success. By rushing Yale gained 129 yards in forty-four plays, to Princeton's thirty-seven in twenty-two efforts. Three first downs were scored against the Tigers' solitary gain in this respect. Thirty-five kicks netted 1,214 yards, against 1,155 yards for Princeton in thirty-three kicks. Yale regained 180 yards by running back Law's punts, while Princeton picked up but 143 yards in a similar manner.

MARSHALL HIGH HELD SCORELESS

Misses Good Chance to Win Game Against Maury in Final Quarter.

Norfolk, Va., November 15.—After having defeated every team it had met this season, the John Marshall School eleven, of Richmond, was held to a scoreless tie by Maury High, on the League Park gridiron this afternoon.

Before the game, even the most optimistic supporters of the Orange and Blue team were shrouded in gloom. For the visitors' record was known, while Maury had done none too well until to-day.

John Marshall held the advantage in the opening half, and twice had the ball inside of Maury's twenty-five-yard line, only to lose it on downs.

Showing more fierceness in attack than it had developed at any time this season, Maury reversed the tale in the closing half, and drove the pigskin well down into the visitors' territory.

That John Marshall missed a good chance to score in the final quarter was due to failure to connect between Macon, left half back, and the captain of the local eleven, John Marshall, then had the ball about mid-field, and had just rolled off two first downs in succession.

Quarter Back Matthews shot a forward pass to Lee Turner, the alien right end, who had darted through the Maury defense, and was waiting for the ball that was coming to him, true as an arrow from its bow.

Macon darted before the ball, jumped into the air, and, snuggling the oval under his left arm, dodged, twisted and slipped through the astonished John Marshall players for a forty-yard run before he was downed. That turned the tide of battle in Maury's favor. Marshallite could get to it.
